C.07/0122	Youth Services Advisory Committee and Cultural Inclusion Advisory Committee Memberships	Cr Rose	16	“Awareness” broadens the meaningful scope of the committee, covering all manner of subjects, peoples, and activities, therefore by implication implies inclusion, without the motherhood statement. Also it divorces the committee notionally from “Access and Inclusion”	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. That Council change the name of the Cultural Inclusion Advisory Committee to the Cultural Awareness Advisory Committee.</li> <li>2. That Council review the nominations received for the Youth Services Advisory Committee and the Cultural Awareness Advisory Committee (Attachment 4).</li> <li>3. That Council select the focus area and role suited to the nominees so as to align with the membership criteria outlined in the Instrument of Appointment and Delegation for both committees and endorse the appointment of those selected nominees.</li> </ol>	√
